

The Colorado Artists Guild Needs Your Help to Preserve Our History!

The Guild is 78 years old, founded in 1928, as the Denver Artists Guild, dba the Colorado Artists Guild. With 52 charter members, a colorful past, and a part of Colorado history, we are in the process of publishing a book called Memories of the Denver Artists Guild. We are a nonprofit 501c3 organization, seeking your help with donations to cover the costs of development, publication and distribution of this worthwhile project. The lives of these early members have ended but their paintings, murals, sculpture, and architectural designs live on in museums, galleries, homes, parks, government buildings, banks and churches throughout Colorado. As relatives become elderly, collecting stories and photographs of these pioneer artists is of utmost urgency.

Proceeds from the sale of this book, after costs, will go to the Colorado Artists Guild philanthropic youth program and scholarship fund, as to the Denver Public Library, Western History/Genealogy Department. Our goal is for this important work to continue.

With your support, this book will become one of the cornerstones of our Colorado art history.
